

CRAFTING ARCHITECTURE

GUEST LECTURE 020

PLEČNIK LECTURE HALL

18:00

25.02.

Brigitte Shim and A. Howard Sutcliffe are both principals in the design firm Shim-Sutcliffe Architects based in Toronto, Canada. Brigitte Shim is also a Professor at the John H. Daniels Faculty of Architecture, Landscape and Design at the University of Toronto.

Shim-Sutcliffe's built work explores the integration and interrelated scales of architecture, landscape, furniture and fittings. To date, Shim and Sutcliffe have received fourteen Governor General's Medals and Awards for Architecture from the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada and an American Institute of Architects National Honor Award along with many other professional accolades for their built work ranging from projects for non-profit groups to public and private clients. Their work has been published internationally and they have both lectured around the world sharing interest and passion for design at all scales.

Shim and Sutcliffe will address the role important role of scale and site in their architecture along with their rethinking about the role of craft in architecture. They will share selected built projects and experiments that are in progress.
